

March 27, 1939.

Mr. Henry Dolch,
Ass't Cashier
Lincoln National Bank,
1005 Broad Street,
Newark, N. J.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of March 25th just received.

I am very sorry to have made the mistake of not signing Mr. Manley's name on checks and have the inconvenience it must have caused. There have been several checks written to date and signed with my name alone. I will appreciate if you will rectify the mistake on them, and from now on I will sign them with Mr. Manley's name first.

Yours very truly,

EM:CCJ